GROUP BOOKINGS: Coach parties and groups welcome at special rates. We have adjacent coach drop off and local parking available. Morning Coffee & Cake, Lunch and Afternoon Tea packages available. See website for details.

HIRE: Our facilities are available for parties, private use, events, photography and filming throughout the year.

ACCESS: We aim to be widely accessible with broad pathways, plentiful seating and ramped doorways. Wheelchair availability on site. Assistance Dogs required by disabled visitors are welcome.

EDUCATION: As a 1950s resource, we support Key Stage learning with special school group rates with no charge for teaching or support staff. Pre-visit staff audits are very welcome.

VOLUNTEER WITH US: We are an educational charity run by volunteers and welcome help in the garden, admission and retail, stewarding and general maintenance.

CELEBRATING SEVEN DECADES OF FAMILY FUN...

The Model Town opened in 1952 and was hugely popular for decades. In the 1980s it was moved, rebuilt and reopened in 1991 as an educational charity mainly run by volunteers.

Be a giant for a day – take a free quiz sheet and discover the fascinating original 1950s diorama of Wimborne in 1/10th scale with over 100 vintage shops to see.

Look out for the Minster Wedding, the chiming Quarter Jack, black and white TVs, a ringing phone box and flushing public conveniences!

GARDENS

The model buildings are set in mature NGS listed gardens offering plentiful seating, herbaceous borders, a rockery, shrubs, trees and a fascinating river system. The easy access Sensory Garden area has wind and water features and the giant Storyteller's Chair.

The Bumble Bee Garden hosts the newly expanded Crazy Golf course. Don't forget Wendy Street, our enclosed play area for younger visitors.

ATTRACTIONS

NEW FOR 2022!

Model of the Model Town - Come and see the new miniature masterpiece celebrating our 70th anniversary. It's 1/10th the size of our existing model buildings.

Wareham Bears - Lots to enjoy with our new furry friends having adventures at work, home and play.

Life Before Lego - Discover the history of British building toys and see the Triang scale dioramas of model cars, roads, buildings and trains.

Model Railway - Engine drivers of all ages will enjoy the digital layout with lighting and touchless controls. Thomas helps out most days.

Beryl Dade Dolls' Houses - Illuminated miniature dwellings each with a story to tell.

1950s School - It's back to the classroom evoking schooling from 70 years ago.

Our Tea Room - offers hot & cold drinks, homemade cakes, snacks, lunches, teas and ice cream; there's always a great range of souvenirs in the Gift Shop.
